To the extent appellant challenges the June 27, 2019 order of the circuit court, the application for a delayed appeal is DISMISSED for lack of jurisdiction because the application was filed more than six months after entry of the order, and appellant's motion for postjudgment relief was not filed within the initial 21-day appeal period or within further time allowed by the trial court. MCR 7.205(G)(3). To the extent appellant challenges the February 24, 2020 order of the circuit court, the delayed application is DENIED for lack of merit in the grounds presented.
